Your presence here adds greatly to our joy and happiness on this day which marks the beginning of our lives together. We stand before you now, declaring before God and this congregation, our love for each other and for our intent to be joined in marriage; to share with each other without reservation our lives, fortunes and future. We hope that you will continue to wish us well in our new life as you have done in the past, and will pray for our continued happiness and success.

To Our Parents & Grandparents...

Parents can only give advice or put us on the right path, but the final forming of a person's character lies in their own hands. With that being said, how can we start to say Thank You! There are no words that can even come close to truly express what we feel. Thank you for always supporting us throughout our entire lives. You all instilled such high values and morals in to our lives, which shaped us into the people that we are now.

Yet, we were sailing through life in two different boats in different seas, but the current was able to steer us together as one flesh because we share common views and values that were instilled because of you. As a result, we were able to share with you all on March 10, 2012 and now we share with all our family and friends on this day, October 6. Many thanks and our sincere appreciation goes to you.
